Naha – Kin Town – Uruma City – Naha

---

7:00 - 8:15a.m.

Breakfast at the hotel.

8:30a.m.

Bus departs for KIN TOWN. Will make a brief restroom stop at IGEI SERVICE AREA before arriving into KIN TOWN. KIN TOWN is well known because of KYUZO TOYAMA, the father of Okinawan immigration. He was a pioneer of migration overseas from Kin Town (previously Kin Village) to Hawaii, North America, Philippines, and central-south America from the Meiji to Taisho period, and developed a foundation for many people who are currently successful in those areas. Kyuzo Toyama was passionate about migration policy and sent migrants from Okinawa prefecture to Hawaii for the first time in 1899 (Meiji 32). He himself also led and went to Hawaii on the second round in 1903 and since then has sent many migrants to North and South America, and Hawaii.

A stop at Kin's limestone caverns, measuring 270 m in length and located 30 m below the ground, home to over 13,000 bottles of Awamori "TATSU" from Kin Shuzo Distillery Company. This natural environment, which is moist and stays at a constant temperature of 18°C, has been used as Japan's first vintage sake cellar since 1988.

Lunch en route.

Bus departs for the east side of Okinawa overlooking the Pacific Ocean to Henza Island in Uruma City, OKINAWA KAICHU ROAD is a road on the sea whose length is 4.7 kilometers (almost 3 miles) the largest of the kind in Asia. It is a beautiful scenic and naturalistic drive.

We will make a restroom stop and you will have some shopping time at UMI no EKI "AYAHASHIKAN" near the beginning of the road to Henza.

Last stop, continue on to MIYAGI ISLAND to the "NUCHI MASU FACTORY" (sea salt of Okinawa). Nuchi masu (salt) contains 21 kinds of minerals, which was registered in the Guinness World Records in 2000 for its significant mineral richness.

5:30p.m.

Bus arrives back to HOTEL PALM ROYAL NAHA. The rest of the day is at your leisure. ( B )

Tuesday, Oct 08th

 8:45a.m. Sightseeing tour of Ishigaki begins.
TAMATORIZAKI OBSERVATORY PLATFORM, the scenic point has been quite known, the East China Sea and Pacific Ocean on the other side can be seen from the vantage point.
YAEYAMA PALM TREES, designated Japan’s national natural treasure. The palm tree groves growing 10-15 meters tall are a rare species that grows only on Ishigaki and Irimote Islands.
 At the beginning of the trail, you will find the Yashi Kinenkan (Palm Tree Memorial). The memorial was built to commemorate the achievements of Dr. Toshihiko Satake, discoverer of the Yaeyama Palm Trees.
 11:15a.m. YONEKO-YAKI, pottery produces the most colorful and possibly the most cute shisa statues in Okinawa. The workshop is just across the road from Yonehara Beach on the northern coastline of Ishigaki.
THE RYUKYU PEARL CENTER, at Kabira Bay is Japan’s only source of cultured black pearls. In Japan, the culturing of black pearls is performed only in Kabira Bay of Ishigaki Island & Funaki Bay of Iriomote Island.
KABIRA BAY, is said to be the most beautiful spot on the Ishigaki Island. The beauty of green, small islands lying in the emerald green sea, the region is undoubtedly one of a kind.
 You will be taking a group picture with Kabira Bay as the background.

Lunch at the POZA Oba-San no Shokutaku Diner, having Ishigaki Hamburger plate with Yaeyama Soba.

TOUJIN BAKA (CHINESE GRAVE), in 1852, 400 laborers being shipped to California, who were supposed to work as mine workers for the Americans & British traders. Chinese rebelled against the cruel treatment they received from the British. The ship however became shipwrecked off the coast of Ishigaki and 380 Chinese unboarded. Many of them were killed by gunfire from the British pursuers, died by illness or committed suicide. Ishigaki islanders protected and provided shelter for them and furnished them with food. In 1971 a Toujin (Chinese) grave was made in the memory of the 128 people who perished in this foreign land.

MINEYA, Yaeyama Minsaori, its origins are said to have come from India. It is also said that the term for cotton girdle, “Mensa” transformed to become “Minsa”. The Minsa was a special gift presented by young women to men as a sign of the acceptance of love. The combination of 5 (itsu) and 4 (yo) checker patterns characterize this fabric, the women’s confession of love:
 “Love me forever” (ikuyo...itsuyo).

Before going to the hotel, you will have some shopping time at ‘DAISO’ 100 Yen Store, Max Value Supermarket, Book Store “Kyouhan”, Drug Store “Eleven”, Home Center & etc.

Today is Naha Tsunahiki (Giant Tug of War) Day at Highway #58. The Naha Giant Tug of War Festival said to have started in 1450, boasts a long and proud history as one of Okinawa's largest events. The most exciting part of this festival is the giant tug of war featuring a rope that is so big it is recorded in the Guinness book of world records. The rope used in the festival is made of a "female" rope to the West known as Miinna, and a "male" rope to the East known as Woounna. The two ropes are ceremoniously joined and officially becomes 200m long, 43 tons, and needs a total of 15,000 people to complete the tug of war, an almost too impressive sight to see. Any and every one is welcome to pull the rope, and the smiles of participants from many different countries fill the crowd. Besides the tug of war, there are also many other events, such as traditional folk dance parades, Hatagashira performances by youths from regional areas during a Hatagashira Procession, and many many more.
