

Hawaii United Okinawa Association
commemorates

"Irei no Hi"

Okinawa Memorial Day, remembering the lives lost during the Battle of Okinawa

irei no hi

nuchi du takara ... life is a treasure

June 21, 2018

(June 23 in Okinawa)

Hawaii Okinawa Center

Doors Open 5:30 pm

Program 6-8 pm

sharing:

A heart-to-heart talk about the importance of remembering the Battle of Okinawa and the many lives lost, presented by MIS veteran Dr. Shinye Gima.

A video and introduction of Mrs. Betty Fumiko Tamae Ganeku (Gushikawa) and her experience of living through and surviving the Battle of Okinawa.

The story of a Himeyuri Butai survivor, Mrs. Janice Suetomi, who was featured in June's Hawaii Herald, written by Jodie Ching.

Opening performance by Ryukyukoku Matsuri Daiko Hawaii.

free and open to the public

Please RSVP via link at huoa.org, google doc link below, or

Pre-Order Bentos are Available for purchase:

- 1) Mini (teri beef, boneless teri chicken, rice, shoga) - $7
- 2) Large (boneless kalbi, boneless teri chicken, rice, takuan) - $12
- 3) Vegetarian (tofu vegetable stir fry and vegetarian yakisoba) - $8

Bento deadline: June 18, mail payment to:

HUOA - Irei no Hi, 94-587 Ukee St., Waipahu, HI 96797

RSVP/Bento Form at <https://goo.gl/forms/cRmHl9TxwVOkAybwl>

Questions?

Call HUOA: 676-5400

Email: ireinohi@gmail.com